PERFECTING DETOX MASK

Cream Mask

A DETOX active agent cocktail with Oleuropein of the Olive, Levan and Jujube Extract:

(Activates the skin's natural recycling system)

Jujube Extract (Chinese Date)

This extract increases the anti-oxidative protection and helps against inflammatory processes by inhibiting the prostaglandin synthesis and prevents against allergically reactions by inhibiting the histamine release.

Oleuropein (Olive Tree Leaves)

An isolated and purified active agent of the leafs of the olive tree activates the body's own proteasome, which is in charge for identification and the disposal of damaging proteins. This discovery is based on the Nobel Prize in 2004! It was approved that the detoxification is increased and the quantity of the senescent (aging) cells have been reduced MMP (Matrix metalloproteinase) will be suppressed, the cell division optimized and the skin rejuvenated.

Levan

Donates moisture due to a film former (similar to the hyaluronic acid) and relieves skin irritations. These special adhesive properties support the products a feeling of firming effect.

 Makes skin visibly and perceivably younger and improves a number of symptoms related to pre-mature skin ageing: skin roughness, hydration and cell renewal.*

SEBUSTOP® (Phyto-astringent special oily skin)

A phyto-active substance extracted from Chinese plants: the roots and rhizomes of burnet (Poterium officinale), the rhizomes of ginger (Zingiber officinale), and the bark of cassia tree (Cinnamomum cassia). Primary benefits:

- Reduction of excess sebum (skin oil) and regulation of sebaceous gland secretions.
- Reduction and minimization of skin pore size – in as little as 15 minutes.
- Antiseptic and disinfecting properties that significantly reduce proliferation of bacteria and infection.

 Mode of action: Because of its high tannin, essential oil and saponoside content, it provides an ideal treatment for short term reduction of excess sebum, cleansing and purifying the skin, to reveal its radiance.*

Kaolin

Kaolin, also known as China Clay, a white powder is insoluble and has excellent absorbent qualities. This quality is used to draw out impurities and toxins and thereby clears the skin of excess oil, dirt, pollutions and other waste materials, to achieve a flawless look. It also stimulates the organic processes in the skin, and acts as a demineralizer for the skin much like thermal mud.
