The Dr. RIMPLER CUTANOVA FACE SPA Cleansing Cream is suitable for daily cleansing. Ideal product for any customers who want the feeling of a lightly foaming cleanser. Kind to the skin, the foam gives a gentle, yet intensive cleanse

RECOMMENDED FOR:

For combination skin, greasy skin, mature/demanding skin and normal skin.

CHARACTERISTIC:

Particularly mild, gently foaming cleansing cream for all skin types.

INGREDIENTS & BENEFITS:

Laminaria Digitata Extract

Also known as Oarweed and Tangleweed, is a golden-brown seaweed you find in the North Atlantic Ocean. It is composed of a polysaccharide (marine sugar), amino acids, minerals and trace elements, essential components of the NMF (Natural Moisturizing Factor). These extracts help restructure the hydrolipidic film and improve moisture retention in the skin. Cell booster, which stimulates ATP synthesis to combat tired and dull skin; increases cell activity, rejuvenating and slowing the cell's aging process. They stimulate collagen production and provide a lifting effect.

Amino Acid-Based Surfactant (SodiumCocoylGlycinate & Sodium Cocoyl Glutamate)

It is a anionic surfactant developed through the combination of coconut oil and the naturally occurring amino acid glycine, to bring us the ultimate in natural surfactants. This state of the art creation offers soft silky foam while delivering skin softness and protection of the skin's moisture system, thanks to the amino acid and lipids.

APPLICATION:

In the morning and evening, foam a hazelnut -sized amount in moist hands and spread over face and neck. Carefully remove with plenty of water.

BEAUTY SPA:

This cleansing cream is the perfect opening for the daily ritual of skin cleansing. The soft and fine-pored foam is gentle on the skin and removes thoroughly dirt particles and make-up. Suitable for whole family.
